"For the second time, in the history of the Republican party a part of the delegates have refused to be bound by the action of the convention. The reason assigned for this course is dissatisfaction with the decision of certain contests in the making up of the temporary roll of the convention.

"So long as those decisions were made honestly and in good faith, all persons were bound to accept them as conciusive.

"You have been nominated because you stand preeminently for certain liked and essential principles which the Kepubblican party maintains, you believe in preserving the constitutional government of the United States, you believe in the rule of law, rather than the rule of men, You know that the great declarations of principle in our constitution cannot be made an effectual guide to conduct in any other way than by judicial judgment upon attempts to violate them; and you maintain the independence, dignity and authority of the courts of the United States.

Tariff One of Leading issues.

Next in importance Mr. Tuft placed the tariff. In the proposals of the Democrats for reductions in the present schedules, he said lay danger of business depression and hard times. The Republican principle of revision, only where scientific investigation shows it necessary, marked the straight road to continued prosperity and commercial peace. and commercial peace.

In discussing the tariff, the president said that it was untrue that to its door could be traced the high cost of living, and pointed out that conditions of living were alike over the world.

Regulation of Trusts. As an issue only less important than the tariff the president placed the regulation of trusts. He said the Sher-man law had been enforced with suc-

Taft did not mention either Col.
Roosevelt or governor Woodrow Wilson by name, but referred to each.

Appeals to Patriotic Men There are men who revere the con-stitution and the institutions of their government with all the love and respect that we could possibly have; me who deprecate disturbance in business conditions and are yearning for that quiet from demagogic agitation which is essential to the enjoyment by the whole people of the great prosperity which the good crops and the present conditions ought to bring us.

"Started by sensational journalism and unjust and unprincipled muck raking," he said, "demagogs have seized the opportunity to inflame the public mind that they might turn peculiar conditions to their own advantage." In the formation of new parties the president said, these men have promised the satisfaction of unrest by the application of a panacea. Attacks Agitators. the application of a panacea.

Present administration Progressive.

'I venture to say there is no national administration in which more steps of progress have been taken than in the present one. But as for the millentum, a condition in which the rich are to be made reasonably poor, and the poor reasonably rich by law, we are chasing a phantom, we are holding out to those whose unrest we fear, a prospect and a dream, a vision of the impossible.

'I do not say that the two gentlemen who now lead, one the Democratic party and the other the former Republicans who have left their party, in their attacks upon existing conditions and in their attempts to satisfy the populists by promises of remedies, are consciously embracing. Promises Their Only Stock.

"The truth is, my Iriends, both those who have left the Republican party and our old opponents, the Democrats, are going in a direction they do not definitely know, toward an end they cannot definitely describe, with but one chief and clear object, and that is of acquiring power for their party by popular support through the promise of a change for the better.

"These gentlemen purpose to reform the government, whose present defects, if any, are due to the failure of the people to devote as much time as is necessary to their political duties by requiring a political activity by the people three times that which thus far the people have been willing to assume."

WOMAN GIVEN OPTION OF FINE OR MOVING

Queer Doings, in Which $50 Mexican Money Figures, Are Revealed.

Four fortune telling gypsies, two men and two women, dropped into El Paso about five days ago. They are said to have borne all the signs which should go to make up the genuine fortune telling gypsy. An old Mexican woman living on South El Paso street, Monday, when they called on her, took them for the real thing, and had her fortune told.

Before the gypsies could begin operations it is said that a $50 bill was essential. This the old woman formital. tial. This the old woman furnished. It was of Mexican currency, but the gypsics, not being able to secure any other, told her that this would answer the purpose. A glass of water was then required and putting the bill into this, the older of the gypsy women is said to have salsamed over it. The Mexican woman was then informed, it is said that it was necessary to burn the bill, that the spirit demanded the offering. She objected to this, but the gypsy, beedless of her protestations, apparent-ly rolled the bill into a knot and threw it into the fire. In reality it is claimed she substituted a piece of paper for it when she did that.

The spirits were working fine until the daughter of the old woman appeared on the scene. After finding out what the gypsies had done, she demanded the regypsies had done, she demanded the re-turn of the money, or else she would call the officers. The money had been burned to satisfy the spirit, she was told but if she was going to call the officers perhaps the spirit could be per-suaded to return it. Another glass of water was procured, and after the gypsy had blown three times in the old Mexi-can woman's face, the bill was found at the bottom of the glass, it is claimed. at the bottom of the glass, it is claimed. The woman was so impressed by the ceremony, it is said, that she took $10

Wednesday afternoon, when the defendant was brought up for trial, she was fined $200, but given the powere of leaving town with n 24 hours.

That the spirits are moving the police is evidenced by the fact that they are camping on the trail of the gypsies to see that they get out of El Paso within the time limit fixed by the judge.

MINE EMPLOYE IS KILLED IN CAGE

Mistook the Rules of Mines and Was Crushed to Death as Result.

Mogollon, N. M., Aug. 1 .- Anthel York, an employe of the Socorro mines, was instantly killed as he attempted to get on the cage that was in the clear. York was pulled into the timbers of the shaft was pulsed into the timoers of the shall and crushed to death. The engineer noticed the strain on the hoist and stopped it immediately. The supposition is that York did not know that the engineer had a right to move the capwithout any signal when it was in the clear. York was employed as a sample and had only worked a few days.

Gives Human Touch to the Sugar Probe by Telling

His Experience. San Francisco, Calif., Aug. 1 .- A human touch was given today to the hearing of the government's suit to dissolve the sugar combine, when John Buck, Hawallan planter and sugar manufacturer, told how his entrance into the refined sugar business caused him to sacrifice the friendship of the late Claude Spreckels, once the sugar king of the west. Buck left New York with Spreckels nearly 56 years ago and came around Cape Horn with him to San Francisco. He entered his employ in the manufacture of bone black, used in sugar refining, and left his position before a year had passed. Then he went to Honolulu, started his own business in the bone black trade and eventually acquired plantation property. hearing of the government's suit to

Greeley, Colo., Aug. 1.—Edmund Vaughn, an actor 40 years old, for whose apprehension a state wide search was instituted yesterday at the request of Mrs. Emily Lemport, of Denver, whose 10 year old daughter, Felicitas, disappeared with the actor a week ago, was arrested in a rooming house here where he and the child had been occupying the same room. When taken to the police station the child pleaded for the release of the man whom she called "daddy."

The child declared that Vaughn had not mistreated her in any manner. Vaughn declared the child resembles his dead daughter and that he would adopt her if the mother would consent. He said Mrs. Lemport should have known of his whereabouts if letters which he had written her had been delivered. He is being held pending action by the mother.
